

SOL-LA FACTS

What's in a name?

SOL-LA's name is in the notes – DO RE MI FA SOL-LA TI DO, and it happens to mean sunny LA!

Did you know?

SOL-LA is a non-profit community music school that provides high quality music education to students from all backgrounds and economic circumstances, in an engaging and encouraging environment fostering achievement and community.

- SOL-LA serves 550 students on campus and satellite programs, from pre-school to adults.
- 1 out of every 2 students at SOL-LA receives tuition assistance based on financial need.
- 1200 additional students receive instruction in art activities at 40 local private and public schools through SOL-LA's collaborative community partnerships.
- SOL-LA offers individual lessons and group classes in instrumental music, voice, music theory, musicianship, chamber music and ensembles of all genres of music.
- SOL-LA is a performance-based program, sharing vibrant cultures through workshops & master classes with guest artists, community festivals, concerts, group presentations, informal performance opportunities and recitals.
- SOL-LA faculty are leaders in pedagogy, highly accomplished and experienced performing artists, and from the nation's top music schools; dedicated to teaching, assessment and research, to enhance the program and keep it pertinent for students.

Your Support Matters

SOL-LA's ability to provide extraordinary musical opportunities in our community depends on your contributions.

- Tuition is subsidized for every student, and covers only 60% of annual expenses. Your contribution will help close the gap between what we charge each student for tuition, and the actual cost of the SOL-LA experience.
- SOL-LA believes that music education is a fundamental right of all students. With your support, SOL-LA will continue to offer high quality music education to a growing number of students.
